One Phase of Washington Life.

I know of a widow woman, formerly a clerk in one of the departments, who has a number of children dependent upon her for support, who has besieged the doors of the departments for weeks to secure an office which would enable her to earn her living Three days ago she had $4 in money, nothing else available or that could be turned into money or bread, with little or nothing in the cupboard or coal bin and a month's rent nearly due She will probably utterly fail to get the position she seeks, as she has not great political influence, and there are no vacancies What then?

Within the last two weeks two young girls, orphans, from the States, lately in office, have been literally frightened to death because they lost their positions, and had no hope of securing them again Their scant earnings sufficed to keep them for only a few days, landlords and boarding house mistresses grew importunate for money due them, the prospect presented only two solutions of the difficulty They could prostitute themselves, and make then only a stinted living—for, commercially speaking, the competition in this line is as great as in any other in Washington—or they could die They died

I had the case brought to my attention, yesterday, of a man who came here from a comfortable home in one of the States, a few years ago, to accept office under the Government He is a lawyer by profession, and had a fine law and miscellaneous library He lost his position and went into the practice of the law here but that profession is of course crowded For weary months he lived in hope Then he began to sell his library and a few days ago parted with the last remainder for $5 He has nothing in the world and a family to support What will he do?

I know that three or four days ago, an artist of world wide celebrity was glad to accept the loan of ninety cents from a friend who was willing to part with one half of his available assets to relieve, as far as might be, the immediately pressing wants of a hungry man

A few months ago a young man, with nothing in the world but the consumption and a family holding a clerkship in one of the departments, was unable to pay a debt when it fell due and although he was an efficient clerk, his unrelenting creditor had such influence with his immediate superior that he secured his dismissal The man was a stranger, in a strange land, with no resources whatever except a friend or two, who were fortunate enough to secure through the head of the department his reinstatement But he lives in daily fear He is dying by inches, but is menaced with the probability that before he dies he will be thrown upon charity for his maintenance and that of his family

It would be a waste of time to go further on this line I could fill the columns of your paper with similar illustrations of this one phase of Washington life The recent cessation of work in the Treasury Bureau of Printing and Engraving (which was occasioned by a lack of funds the appropriation to carry on the work having been exhausted), threw several hundreds, possibly a thousand, of women out of employment Columns of the Republican, of this city, have been filled with statements from these people — recitals of sudden want of hardship forced upon them in this way—so pitiful that in very self-defence one is compelled to pass them over without reading — Cor. Cincinnati Commercial

Congressional Control of Federal Appointments.

Members of Congress go to Washington under a mortgage of all the Federal appointments in their districts to men whom they know to be incompetent or personally dishonest, to men whose sole recommendation is that they can pack nominating conventions, intimidate opposition, stuff ballot boxes, forge election returns, and generally make elections utterly corrupt It is a striking illustration of this system that of all the Federal revenue officers in the State of Illinois appointed by the Senators and Representatives in Congress, more than half of them are now under conviction of official crime, or under indictment, or are fugitives in foreign countries, or have been dismissed for unfitness These members of Congress when elected take their pledges to Washington and submit them to the President, and demand that he redeem them, and threaten him that if he dare to nominate any other persons, they will appeal to the Senate and have the nomination rejected! The President has no alternative but to submit. The Senate stands combined in solid phalanx for the preservation of the common usurpation — Chicago Tribune.

He Meant Well.

There is an old gentleman that comes down town on foot every morning, who appears to be a great friend to dumb animals Whenever he sees a dog scratching at a store door to be let in he promptly opens it for the animal The other morning he made a mistake in the dog business. He let one in, and soon the same canine came rushing between his legs, nearly throwing him down, and covering the lower part of his pantaloons with paint A man with great overalls on was chasing him with a paint brush he had in his hand. The old gentleman expostulated with the irrate painter, for such he proved to be, saying.

"My good man, why do you wish to hurt that dog?"

"Because he has tipped over my paint and made an infernal mess of everything Some blasted old idiot let him into the store when we were trying to keep him out while I was doing some painting; he jumped through the door, stuck his forelegs into the paint-pot, and tipped it over Brown paint on a marble floor looks well, don't it? I wish people would mind their own business!"—Boston Transcript

—A gentleman, while making a speech, inadvertently stepping forward, fell off the platform. In response to the peals of laughter that greeted his unlucky fall he claimed that any speaker had a right to come down to the level of his audience.

TERMS—(one year (cash in advance), $6; Six months, $4; Three months, $2 50.

OFFICES } 911 Broadway, Oakland. 504 Montgomery, San Francisco.

Served by Carriers........ ...15 Cents per Week

The circulation of the TRIBUNE is more than double that of any paper published in Alameda County.

"TRIBUNE" FOR SALE.

THE ENTIRE BUSINESS AND MATERIAL of the "Oakland Daily Evening Tribune" are offered for sale. Further particulars by applying to or addressing BEN. A. DEWES, Oakland.

REMARKS

In offering the TRIBUNE for sale, I do so solely on account of failing health. Having now been confined to my bed for the past six months by sickness, brought on by overwork I find that my business cares are taxing my health and strength too severely, allowing me no rest, or opportunity for recovery

The TRIBUNE is acknowledged to be the best newspaper property in Alameda county, and has about three times the circulation and double the patronage of any other paper issued in this city. It is in a most flourishing condition. The business is thoroughly established, and on a sound and paying basis.

I will continue the business as heretofore, making improvements in keeping with the times, being willing to withdraw for the sole reason that my health demands the change.

BEN. A. DEWES, Manager "Tribune"

THE Alta says that at least three of the men elected as delegates to Cincinnati, by our State Convention, should have been permitted to stay at home Who are they?

THE Record-Union is satisfied with the result of the State Convention, which, it asserts, was a real defeat for those who have heretofore "run the marchine." Perhaps.

IT looks as if the bears in the stock market had beat down prices as far as they desired, gobbled up the stock of those who got scared and and sold out, and arranged for a change of programme. But it is unsafe for outsiders to make their bets. Now you see it and now you don't.

THE times have changed. The Call doubts the existence of any Federal brigade in this State. It will next declare that Carr is a greatly injured man, that he is not an office broker, but a nice old gentleman in the real estate business, and that he teaches a Chinese class at Sunday-school.

THE force of public opinion is making itself felt, even with Administration politicians. They are rapidly giving their support to Blaine or Bristow, as if forewarned that one or the other would be the next President whether they liked it or not, and that it was their safest policy to worship the rising sun.

THE Chonicle has taken up the story of the Hanscoms, where the Post left off a few months ago. They have had a good thing in supplying the Mare Island Navy Yard and are trying to hold it. Luttrell must be in the ring, or he would set the Democratic investigators on a track that would lead to so many scandals.

TO JUDGE by the tenor of what we see in most of the newspapers, and from expressions by non-office holding Republicans, we believe that Bristow will poll a larger vote than any other man who could be nominated by the Republicans. It is certain that if Governor Tilden should be the candidate of the Democrats, the Republicans would be closely pushed, and many believe Bristow or Adams are the only men who could defeat him.

WHERE can the Council find any authority for spending money to build a dam or a bridge on the line of Twelfth street, across the San Antonio slough? Of course everyone understands that the Council has no power to appropriate money for any purpose, unless the authority is expressly conferred by law. It is proposed to enter into contracts involving, perhaps, thirty thousand dollars of the city's money, and it would be no more than prudent to see what what authority exists for such action. By the charter and its amendments, the powers of the Council are quite limited, and the members are made personally responsible for any mistakes of law that may be made by them in voting away money.

THE Chronicle expresses its preference for Bristow in the following emphatic manner:

The real, earnest, effective crusade against crime was inaugurated by the Republican party; and the leader and champion of this crusade has been and is Benjamin H. Bristow. And therefore it is to-day the masses of the Republican party, aside from a few interested office-holders, are earnestly demanding the promotion of that gallant and zealous defender of the cardinal Republican doctrine of honesty in office to the Chief Executive station, that he may there more effectually carry on the fiercest reformatory work he has so well begun in the Department over which he now so ably presides. His nomination at Cincinnati will raise a degree of enthusiasm which no other name can evoke. It will be received as a protest against official corruption; an indorsement of the well-directed efforts that have been made to detect and punish crime; and an assurance that in the future bad men will find no places in the administration of public affairs.

LARGE quantities of fractional currency have already been presented for redemption in silver. It is also reported that no small silver has been put into circulation. These two facts show that silver is worth more than the paper currency and that the brokers are obtaining possession of it on account of its bullion value. The result of this may be very serious. It has been predicted that the silver paid out for the redemption of rag money would not be put in circulation and that in a few months, perhaps a year, there would be such a scarcity of small change as to cause great inconvenience. No matter how much opinions may differ on other phases of the financial question, there is a tolerably substantial agreement on the idea that two or three different kinds of money cannot circulate indiscriminately, that an attempt to force such a circulation will help along money brokers and speculators, but injure everybody else.

THE HALF TIME SYSTEM.

The "half time" system followed in some of our primary schools is a misnomer; the plan is one which accommodates two schools at the same time, without extra buildings or teachers. About one year ago Superintendent Campbell suggested this plan to the Board of Education, and at the present time there are some eight or ten classes under the new system. Educators have been almost unanimous in the opinion that children in the primary classes should not be kept at school more than three hours per day. It has been the custom to have part of their time taken from the forenoon and part of it from the afternoon Under this plan suggested by our Superintendent, the whole time of a set of classes is taken up in the forenoon and in the afternoon another set of classes receives the attention of the teachers. The amount of care and attention bestowed upon each child is as great as ever.

The saving in money is very great Without such an arrangement it is difficult to see how the Board of Education could have provided for all the children who were seeking admission to the schools. For working six hours per day instead of three, the teachers are allowed an increase in salary of twenty-five per cent., which represents the whole extra cost of instructing eight or ten additional classes. Under the old plan, an eight-room building, worth $20,000, would have been necessary, with a monthly pay roll of about $700 per month. The value of our primary school buildings is made just twice as large as formerly, and in the future it will be necessary to erect only half as many buildings as would be wanted upon the old basis. It was certainly a great waste to have a twenty thousand dollar building used only three hours a day, and in demonstrating the practicability of his plan, Superintendent Campbell caused an immense saving of money, not only to the City of Oakland, but to many other cities which are following Oakland's example.

CITY EXPENDITURES.

Nearly two years ago there was a very great reform in the management of local affairs, caused by the well-directed efforts of Councilman Mason, assisted by Mr. Everson, Mr Webber and others. There were a great many small leaks which they discovered and stopped, and the people are to-day enjoying the results of the excellent policy those gentlemen inaugurated. We present the following statement of ordinary expenditures, from the salary and general funds, for the first three months of 1875, and the first three months of the current year:

	1875	1876
January	$10,410 44	$12,509 30
February	6 581 69	12,500 80
March	9,040 60	8,030 74
	$26,032 73	$33 140 84
		26,032 73
Excess this year.		$ 7,108 11

The expenses of the Fire Department were $3,726 58 greater this year and the Police Department cost $1,577 72 more than for the first quarter of 1875. No bills were paid to the City Engineer during the corresponding months of 1875, with a trifling exception, and about a thousand dollars extra is now to be allowed in that account, so that the difference of the seven thousand dollars we mention is accounted for by three items. The Fire Department has been more expensive on account of the purchase of apparatus, and the police force has done more work, there have been more prisoners to feed and also one or two extra men on the pay roll. We think it somewhat remarkable that the current expenses of the city should remain essentially the same that they were a year ago. The city was then served at bed rock prices, and as the increase in population is about twenty per cent. per annum, an increase of about ten per cent. in the running expenses would be regarded as admissable. We believe that at this time Oakland is one of the best governed cities in America and we hope that it will always preserve a reputation for economy, while avoiding every semblance of stinginess

WHISKY FRAUDS.

The following letter is from the Call of this morning:

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27, 1876.

Editor Morning Call: I wish to notice some more of the misstatements of that very secret Government Agent, Mr. D. L. Phillips, contained in his published report. He stated that the unpleasantness on my part of prosecuting a friend (Jost) was admitted. By whom admitted that he was my friend or that the prosecution was unpleasant? It is certainly news to me, and I have no doubt the statement will as much surprise his Honor, the Judge, and the jury and parties who witnessed that trial, at that other equally untruthful statement of the same Mr. Phillips that we had a hoodlum jury, taken from the slums of San Francisco. The only complaint I have heretofore heard about that trial, on my part, was that I prosecuted Jost with unnecessary bitterness, and denounced too freely some of the officers who ought to have watched the distillery. In reference to another branch of Phillips' indictment, I submit a copy of a correspondence with the Hon. John W. Dwinelle, special counsel to prosecute revenue frauds.

Yours Respectfully,

WALTER VAN DYKE.

It is unfortunate for Mr. Van Dyke that he is between two fires. The Special Agent thinks that he did not prosecute hard enough, while Jost thinks that he was too much in earnest about it. Those who read the reports of the Jost trial must have been impressed with the fact that Mr. Van Dyke presented the case in a clear and forcible manner and did all that he could to secure the conviction of a man whom he believed to be guilty. We think that his offense consisted in prosecuting too well.

THE San Leandro Trustees, desirous of encouraging business in their town, reduced the price of whisky licenses to thirty dollars per quarter, and the result came up to their most sanguine expectations. In ten weeks the number of saloons increased from nine to seventeen, and there is no telling where it will stop. Even the dry goods stores are setting up bars to accommodate the thirsty San Leandroites.

Business and Residence

Property in the City of Oakland,

SITUATED AS FOLLOWS:

That centrally located and most desirable property for business purposes, being situated on Twelfth and Jackson streets, the surroundings of which are the finest in the city, being on Twelfth street, second block from Grand Central Hotel and only a short distance from Broadway.

It must soon of necessity be in the heart of the business of the city Twelfth street is the main thoroughfare extending through the entire length of the city, upon which horse cars run regularly from Oakland proper to East Oakland and this property is within 10 minutes walk from Broadway Station and but 5 minutes walk from the Oak street Station of the local trains Streets are sewered and macadamized and each lot connects with the main sewer.

The terms upon which this property will be sold give all an opportunity to purchase, being one-quarter cash, balance in 1, 2 and 3 years. Interest on deferred payments at 9 per cent. per annum.

..ALSO

Three lots situated on the northerly line of Tenth street bet. Clay and Jefferson, and also 4 lots situated on Eleventh between Clay and Jefferson.

These lots present great inducements for residence purposes being as they are surrounded by fine and costly residences and in the immediate vicinity of churches and schools

They will be offered on very liberal terms: One-half cash; balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, to suit purchasers, or in monthly installments, with interest at 10 per cent. per annum.

On the day of sale a windmill and tank complete and in good condition, situated on the above premises, will be offered for sale

ALSO

Four splendid lots situated on the east side of Market street, bet. 16th and 17th.

Market street is one of the principal thoroughfares of the city, from the water front to the foot hills, and is rapidly improving

The terms offered on these lots are seldom given, being one-fourth cash, balance in 1, 2 and 3 years, to suit purchasers, or in monthly installments, with interest on deferred payments at 10 per cent. per annum.

ALSO

Four houses, with lots, situated on Valley and Locust streets, and also five cottages and lots situated on Valley street.

These houses and cottages are nearly new and substantially built, being about equal distance between Broadway and Telegraph avenue and within one block of a horse railroad on either Broadway or Telegraph avenues The cars of these roads run regularly every seven and fifteen minutes It is seldom that such an opportunity is offered for investment These houses rent quickly and pay a large interest on the amount of their cost

Will be sold on the following liberal terms: One-fourth cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, to suit purchasers, or in monthly installments. Interest at 9 per cent. per annum.

..ALSO

3 plots of land four and one-half acres each, situated on Webster avenue, a short distance northerly from the junction of said avenue with Broadway.

This property is within 10 minutes of Broadway Station by the Piedmont Railroad cars, which passes this property every few minutes Through this tract there runs a fine stream of water, which makes it desirable for suburban residence purposes Will be sold as a whole or in subdivisions TERMS AT SALE.

.....ALSO..

Twelve splendid lots situated on Warren, Henry and Rose streets, in the Eitchburg Tract.

This property is but a short distance from the Melrose Station of the C P R R, and also but five minutes walk from the Brooklyn, Fruit Vale and Mills' Seminary Horse Railroad which is now being built and will be completed within a few weeks. These lots will be sold as a whole or in subdivisions. TERMS AT SALE.

Seventh-day Adventists.

Elder J. H. Waggoner will speak in Seventh-day Adventist Hall at 11 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday), and also at 7:30 Sunday evening.

Earthquake.

As we predicted yesterday, a short, sharp shock of earthquake darted through Oakland, from southeast to northwest, at 12:20 this afternoon.

Ticket Office Wanted.

The people of East Oakland are trying to get the Central Pacific Railroad Company to establish a ticket office at the Brooklyn Station.

Let Everybody be There.

At the great auction sale of desirable business and residence property by Woodward & Taggart, at 460 and 462 Eighth street, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

To-morrow is the Time.

To buy desirable and eligibly located business and residence property, at the great auction sale of Woodward & Taggart, 460 and 462 Eighth street—time, 2 P. M.

Writing Papers.

A full supply of writing papers embracing the very best English pure linen note paper, letter paper, and other sizes; can be found at Strickland & Co., bookstore 1061 Broadway near Twelfth street.

Minstrels To-night.

The Grand Combination Traveling Minstrel Troupe will give an entertainment at the Alta House, northwest corner of Eighth and Washington streets, this (Friday) evening. The price of admission is only ten cents.

Couldn't Find One.

A man dropped into police headquarters at noon to-day and said he wanted to get "an idle policeman to go after some paint-pots and brushes." There were no idle policemen around.

A Conundrum.

The editor of the Brooklyn Vidette says "a large number of $20 gold pieces are in circulation, the edges of which have been purposely filed down as a matter of profit." Wonder how he found out that $20 pieces are in circulation.

Rebekah Social.

The ladies of Oakland Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 16, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will give a social entertainment at Odd Fellows' Hall, northwest corner of Eleventh and Franklin streets, on Wednesday evening of next week.

Social Party.

The regular monthly social of the Oakland Turn Verein will be given at the Academy of Music on Sunday evening next. During the dance a solo will be played upon an instrument called the zithern. These parties are always orderly and afford a great deal of enjoyment to those who attend.

High Water.

It was high water in the Humboldt that detained the overland trains the past two days. The Humboldt river runs along the railroad for a distance of at least three hundred miles, and the principal trouble was experienced about ten miles beyond Elko, where the track was covered by water a foot deep.

Exchange of Tickets.

Parties purchasing tickets for the dramatic entertainment at Dietz Opera-house to-morrow afternoon and being unable to attend the matinee, can exchange the same for tickets to to-morrow evening's entertainment by calling on Sanford, Kelsey & Co., southwest corner of Tenth and Broadway, and paying twenty-five cents—the difference in the price of admission.

Matinee To-morrow.

At 2 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon the popular drama of "Faust and Marguerite" and the beautiful and wonderful illusions and transformations will be repeated at Dietz Opera-house, for the accommodation of ladies and children and for the benefit of St. John's Mission Sunday-school. All the little folks in the city ought to have an opportunity of witnessing those marvelous illusions. To-morrow evening the entertainment will be repeated, with a change of programme.

Picnics To-morrow.

The fifth annual reunion and picnic of "old settlers" of Placer county will take place at Badger's Park, East Oakland, to-morrow, with General Jo Hamilton for orator and Albert Hart as poet. The employes of the San Francisco Rolling Mills will also picnic to-morrow, at Damon's Grove, Saucelito; and on the same day the picnic of the Pilgrim Sunday School of the Unitarian Church of San Francisco will take place at Belmont Park, San Mateo county.

Another Rare Chance.

That very desirable and eligibly located residence and business property lying between and extending to the intersection of Grove street and San Pablo avenue, and known as the Leman Tract, will shortly be offered for sale by auction on the most liberal terms, and the day of sale (about the 11th of May) will be looked forward to with considerable anxiety by those desiring to secure homes in the best portion of the city at reasonable figures and on easy terms.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Frenchman, Crazed with Drink, Swallows a Dose of Arsenic.

A Frenchman named Victor Dujardin, aged about thirty-five years, took a heavy dose of arsenic at noon to-day. He had been working at the Cosmopolitan Restaurant until a few days since, when he went on a spree. Yesterday he rushed in to Judge Jayne's office and called for protection, saying that somebody was trying to kill him. He was turned over to the police and locked up until this morning, when he appeared to have recovered from his excitement, and being quite rational, was discharged.

About noon to-day he walked into Becht's saloon, corner of Eleventh and Broadway, and called for a glass of wine. The wine was furnished him, and while the barkeeper's attention was directed elsewhere Dujardin deliberately emptied into the glass a large dose of arsenic, and laying the paper upon the counter and raising the glass of wine and arsenic to his lips, said "Good-bye!" and swallowed the dose. The barkeeper picked up the paper and found upon it the words "Arsenic—Poison." The Frenchman walked out and went down Broadway to a restaurant between Sixth and Seventh streets, which he entered.

The barkeeper followed him as far as Seventh street, where he met Capt. Rand and informed him of the occurrence. Captain Rand and officer Tyler immediately started after the would-be suicide, and met him at the door of the restaurant. He was taken in charge by the officers who marched him up to the city prison, leaving word for Dr. Sherman as they passed that gentleman's office.

Dr. Sherman arrived a few moments after the prisoner got to police headquarters, and at once injected a powerful soporific emetic into his arm. Up came the arsenic; then the salt horse and hard tack devoured at the City Prison last night, and then the tangle-leg became agitated and began to flow, and finally the depths of sobriety were reached, when the troubled Gaul dropped off into a sound sleep, from which, let us hope, he will awake a wiser and more rational man.

Woodward & Taggart's Sales.

At 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at their salesrooms 460 and 462 Eighth street, Messrs. Woodward & Taggart will offer for sale by auction, on easy terms, a large line of desirable business and residence property in this city, embracing some valuable ground on the corner of Twelfth and Jackson streets; three lots on the northerly line of Tenth street, between Clay and Jefferson; four lots on Eleventh street, between Clay and Jefferson; four splendid lots on the east side of Market street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth; four houses, with lots, situated on Valley and Locust streets; five cottages and lots on Valley street; three plots of land of four and a half acres each, on Webster avenue, near New Broadway, and twelve splendid lots situated on Warren, Henry and Rose streets, in the Fitchburg Tract, near Melrose Station, and within a few minutes walk of the Brooklyn and Fruitvale horse railroad.

The Ladies' Fair.

The fair at the old church on Seventh street, between Jefferson and Grove, continues to attract large crowds of gentlemen and ladies every evening—and every day also. As to-morrow (Saturday) evening is the time fixed for closing the fair, there will doubtless be a great rush this evening and to-morrow. There is really no place in the city where people can enjoy themselves so heartily and at such trifling expense as at this fair, and we would advise all who want to have a good time and who wish to see a sight that is bewildering in its splendor and beauty to go to the old church building this and to-morrow evenings.

Officers Elected.

The Trustees of the Alameda Gold and Silver Mining Company (recently incorporated in this city) met at the real estate and mining agency of J. L. Wetmore & Co., 922 Broadway, last evening, and elected Samuel Milbury President and C. E. Gillett Secretary of the company. It was then voted to call a meeting of the stockholders for Wednesday next, May 3d, at the office of S. F. Daniels, 456 Eighth street, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization, and for the transaction of such other business as may be necessary for the immediate working of the mine.

Houses and Lots by Auction.

Messrs. Olney & Co. will offer for sale, at 1 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, at their salesrooms, 857 Broadway, that splendid block bounded by Fourth, Fifth, Oak and Madison streets, in subdivisions; the fine house and lot 100x150 on the southwest corner of Fifth and Oak streets, and a house and large lot on Taylor street, three blocks from Point Station. For full and reliable information touching these several parcels of real estate, parties wishing to purchase should call upon Messrs. Olney & Co., 857 Broadway, prior to the hour of sale.

Dietz Opera House.

There was a fair turn-out last evening to witness the presentation of "Faust and Marguerite" and the wonderful illusions, and the entertainment gave great satisfaction. The programme will be repeated at the matinee to-morrow afternoon, and to-morrow evening there will be an additional attraction in the recitation of "Father Phil's Collection," by that accomplished and popular elocutionist D. L. Emerson.

HENRY HAUSCHILDT (FORMERly of Senram & Co.) begs to inform his friends and the public in general that he has opened at No. 1057 Broadway, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, with the finest stock of Boots and Shoes ever brought to this market, which he offers to sell at lower prices than any store in this city, at least, at San Francisco prices. Repairing done neatly and with dispatch.

LADIES—A FINE LOT OF LADIES' sandals of different patterns. Also, French kid button and lace gaiters, at Holcomb & Outrom, Broadway, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets.

BACON'S PALACE OF SWEETS, 965 Broadway, is the place to get a box of fine home-made or French Candies. They are received daily, per Bacon's Express, from five of the most prominent makers in San Francisco.

THE NATIONAL GOLD MEDAL was awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world. Ascend in the Elevator. 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

EASTERN SOLID WALNUT SUITES sold for less than San Francisco prices, at the Oakland Furniture Warerooms, Nos. 1105 and 1107 Broadway, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, Christian Schrieber, proprietor.

R. McCUTCHEON'S WINE ROOMS, 370 Eighth street, between Franklin and Webster, Oakland. None but first-class liquors on hand.

WHITENING.—Best and cheapest place to get your whitening done is at J. E. How's, corner Ninth and Broadway, opposite Union Bank. Also, sign painting, paints, oil, etc.

SENRAM, AT 963 BROADWAY, has just received from the East an immense and choicely selected stock of boots and shoes which will be sold cheap for cash.

AGENT FOR BLACKMAN'S FLUID for restoring tarnished jewelry, soiled silverware, to the original brilliancy. W. Wilson, 961 Broadway, Oakland.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

New Creek Boats—Dredging Lake Merritt—Fraternal Visit—New Station—Odd Fellows Hall—Leap Year Party—Climate, Etc.

[From the Brooklyn Vidette of to-day.]

The steamer Alameda, lying at our wharves, will soon be ready for use. Her engines have been tried several times, and her painting is nearly finished.

Wonder if the draw in Webster street bridge is sufficiently wide to admit the passage of the new steamer Capital, which is to take the place of the Louise, on the creek route.

Rumor has it that a scheme has long been in contemplation for dredging Lake Merritt. If the ooze, to the depth of three feet were scooped out, the water would not be so murky when the wind blows.

A fraternal visit was made on Monday evening by Lodge No. 1, Daughters of Rebekah, of San Francisco, to Brooklyn Lodge, No. 12. The visiting party numbered sixty. After fraternizing and refreshments, the guests departed for home on the 10:10 P. M. train.

Some time ago a petition was sent to the C. P. Railroad Company by residents along Fruit Vale avenue for the location of a local station at that point and a continuation of the local track to Melrose. The C. P. Railroad, ever ready to accommodate, is complying with the request made in the petition.

The new hall of the Odd Fellows, in Brooklyn, has been handsomely furnished and upholstered. Its carpets are fine Brussels and its grand canopies and chandeliers are superb. In addition to the desks, piano, and the ordinary furniture, twelve chairs, costing $25 each, have been provided. The entire interior of the hall has a cheerful and beautiful appearance.

The ladies of the Church of the Advent are preparing an entertainment which bids fair to be one of the finest ever held in Brooklyn. The programme is varied and attractive, embracing tableaux, solo and quartette singing, recitations, and an exceedingly laughable farce; all to wind up with a leap year hop. The entertainment will be held Thursday night, May 4th, at Washington Hall.

Strangers visiting Brooklyn are surprised to see so many buildings in the process of erection; but after spending a few days here, and inhaling the soft, balmy airs, so different from the harsh, cold, disagreeable winds of San Francisco, they are still more surprised that there is not a much greater number of residences built. The difference between the climate of San Francisco and Brrooklyn is really astonishing when we consider their proximity. Here, the air is laden with the perfume of flowers and vegetation, and rendered vocal by the songs of the feathered choristers; in short, it is a pleasure to exist here.

The "Subranto" Settlers.

Eighty-four settlers on the Subrante Rancho, five miles northeast of this city, have joined together to contest the right of H. W. Carpentier to the lands which some of their number have occupied for the past twenty years. They held a meeting in East Oakland on Monday evening last and appointed committees to investigate the matter. The "Subranto" has a population of about one thousand souls, and is situated between the Castro, De los Palas Colorados, Pinole, Peralta and Bruno ranchos.

A Bold Thief.

While some workmen were engaged in a building corner of Eleventh and Franklin streets, between 9 and 11 o'clock to-day, a thief overhauled their dinner buckets and coats outside, and stole from one of the garments a $35 silver watch and chain. The letter "M" is engraved on the back of the case of the watch and also upon the chain. The thief is known, and will probably be taken in by the police by the time we go to press.

Police Court.

The following business was transacted before Judge Jayne this morning: Frank Price was fined $1 for battery. John Schneider was sentenced to imprisonment for twenty-four hours for violating a city ordinance. Charles Smith and Barney Murphy, two petty thieves from San Francisco, each pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny, and will be sentenced to-morrow. One drunk was fined $6, and one charge of battery was dismissed.

Yosemite Travel.

MERCED, April 27th.—Departures for Yosemite this morning: E. Smith, W. E. Smith, Brooklyn, N. Y. Arrivals from the valley this afternoon: Capt. Villard, Capt. Mertian, Capt. Tartoul, France; John W. Laing, England; T. E. Scriven, T. O. Smith, New York; George N. Taylor, Greenville, Illinois; Frank Swift, San Francisco; M. P. O'Connor, Grass Valley; Josh Davis, Vallejo; Wash. Butter, Carrollton, Ohio.

Arrests.

Victor Dujardin, a native of France, has been arrested by Captain Rand and officer Lufkin, on suspicion of insanity; Charles Smith and Barney Murphy, two petty larceny thieves from San Francisco, by officer Shorey, and one drunk by officer McKay.

The Best Chance Yet.

The best opportunity ever offered those desiring to get hold of valuable business and residence property in this city will be that offered by Woodward & Taggart's great auction sale at 2 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, at 460 and 462 Eighth street.

MERIT WILL WIN — IN NONE OF the many recent achievements of medical science has the above saying been more happily illustrated than in the success of the Yerba Buena Bitters. So perfectly are the valuable components of this great tonic blended that their action on the system is as harmonious as the workings of Nature itself. Dr. Warren's years of study and research have been rewarded by the production of this marvelous cure, and to him do the thousand sufferers from headache and the numerous and distressing maladies arising from imperfect action of the digestive organs owe the relief which his great discovery surely brings. It is the real merit of the Bitters that insures them this unparalleled success, as this is the age when everything has to stand or fall upon its merits. A discriminating public, acting as important judges, soon decide what is good and what is useless or harmful. Since the introduction of the Yerba Buena Bitters their sale has constantly and rapidly increased, and the proprietors, Messrs. H. Williams & Co., have correspondingly increased their facilities for its manufacture. Their last enterprise has been the securing of the large wareroom at 65 New Montgomery street, where they are permanently located and will be enabled to supply the constant call that comes up from all parts of the land for the most popular tonic and restorative of the day. The people have given their verdict — the article has genuine merit, and to this merit is to be attributed its flattering approval — "MERIT WILL WIN."

CALL AT WILSON'S, NO. 961 Broadway, and make a note of the hard time prices. There is no better time than the present for making purchases in Watches, Jewelry, etc., if the buyer considers the saving of money an object. All repairing promptly done and satisfaction guaranteed.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE WORKINGmen. Silver taken at par for all cash sales except custom work, at Holcomb & Outram's boot and shoe store, Broadway, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets.

ELOCUTION.—Wm. N. Van Demark Teacher of Elocution in all its branches. Special attention to stage and lyceum aspirants. Rooms No. 16, Somerset House, 462 Twelfth street, Oakland.

In Memoriam.

WHERAS, on the 22d of April, after an organization of nearly three years, our Grange Circle has been broken for the first time, by our Divine Master's translation of our cherished sister, Mrs. Isabel W. Collins, to the "Better Land."

Resolved, That by the departure of Sister Collins from our field of earthly labor, Temescal Grange has parted with one of its most sterling, cheerful-hearted and noble-minded Patrons, and her family with a fond, faithful, Christian wife and mother. That the influence of her kind and truthful acts will ever continue with us. That we truly sympathize with our afflicted brother, our Worthy Secretary his son, and their entire family. That this heartfelt expression of the Grange be inscribed on our records, and official copies delivered to the family of Sister Collins, to the local papers and the Pacific Rural Press. Committee—Sarah H. Dewey, J. V. Webster and C. J. Cressey.

A Pleasant Anecdote of Charles O'Conor.

In May, 1855, Edward Murden, after eighteen years of arduous labor, perfected his invention—the machine which is now used for manufacturing seines or fish-nets with wonderful rapidity. The great difficulty for Mr. Murden to overcome was to have the knots tied so that they would not slip. The invention of this machine was his life-work, and when he saw it capable of turning out miles of strong, substantial netting in a single day he was penniless. The expense of making it had been so great, and the cost of supporting a large family during all those years of untiring effort so heavy, that he had been compelled to obtain a loan from a Mr. Havemeyer—a cousin of the late Mayor—to keep the wolf from the door. When the machine was completed, Mr. Havemeyer claimed it, and Mr. Murden was threatened with the loss of his whole life-work. In this emergency he went to Charles O'Conor to seek advice, asking him to take legal proceedings. "What is your fee?" asked Mr. Murden. "One thousand dollars," replied the lawyer. Then the inventor said he hadn't ten dollars in the world, and told Mr. O'Conor the story of his eighteen years' devotion and labor. After he had finished, Mr. O'Conor said his charge was $1,000, and no less. He would take that or nothing, but as Mr. Murden was poor and deserving he would do his work for nothing. And he did it, devoting many hours to the study of the case, the hunting up of authorities, and the writing out of an elaborate opinion advising what course to pursue. He then gave the inventor a letter to a young lawyer in Newburg, New York, asking him to conduct the case in Court, saying that he would be responsible for payment. The result of the legal proceedings was that Mr. Murden secured his rights and realized $20,000 by the sale of his title to the invention over and above all claims. Then he went again to see Mr. O'Connor to pay his indebtedness. "How much money have you realized?" asked the lawyer. Mr. Murden told him. "It is not one-tenth enough," was the reply, "and as I cannot take less than $1,000 for my fee, and that is more than you can afford to pay out of what you have got, I must be content to take nothing." Mr. Murden urged him to take the fee; one-half of it; $200; something; but Mr. O'Connor was inflexible, even brusque, in his large-heartedness. He would take not a cent; and, bidding the inventor good-by, left him hastily. I was with Mr. Murden when he returned from Mr. O'Connor's office, and I heard him tell with tears in his eyes, of the lawyer's kindness. —Letter in N. Y. Tribune.

—The Chicago papers are publishing a list of the divorces recently granted in that city. The average Chicagoan steals away with it to the privacy of his own closet, runs down the long array until he comes to a familiar name, and sighs as he says to himself: "Last year she was mine; last week she was his'n; to-morrer she will be somebody else's. Oh, Mary Ann, what changes you has seen!"

—"What are you going to do about it?" asked Davie of a friend who had been smashed up in a railroad disaster and terribly injured. "Well," gasped the sufferer, "firstly, I shall go in for repairs; secondly, I shall go in for damages."

—Judge Hilton, to whom Mr. Stewart willed $1,000,000, and who is to act for him in managing, closing and winding up his partnership business, has been his confidential friend and adviser for nearly thirty years. Mr. Hilton is a lawyer, and has served in many public positions with great credit—Supreme Court Judge and Park Commissioner. His law business of late years has been almost exclusively confined to Mr. Stewart's affairs. He is a gentleman of polished manners and fine personal appearance. Mr. Libby, who has for many years had the largest interest, next to Mr. Stewart, in the establishment, and upon whom will now fall the principal management of the business, is a thorough-bred merchant.

—A story is told of a venerable negro in Iowa who was on trial for an offense against the State. When the case was announced in court, "The State of Iowa versus Sampson Cæsar," the aged African exclaimed, "What! de whole State of Iowa agin dis chile! Den I surrenders."

—A prominent clergyman of Brooklyn, last week, while taking one of a course of boxing lessons for exercise, received what the boys call a "jollo black eye." On Sunday he chose his text from Timothy ii, 7: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course."

—A place ought to be reserved in the mechanical department at Philadelphia for the exhibition of our political machinery. It would astonish the foreigners more than anything we can show them, especially if in operation with the stockers and engineers at their posts.

—Two young men out riding were passing a farm-house where a farmer was trying to harness an obstinate mule. "Won't he draw?" said one of the men. "Of course," said the farmer, "he'll draw the attention of every fool that passes this way." The young men drove on.

—"Bill, what brought you to prison?" "A couple of constables, sir." "What brought them after you?" "Their legs, I suppose." "And had liquor anything to do with it?" "Yes, sir, Eliza teased me, so I had to lick her."

—When a certain woman in town speaks of her "late husband" you must not conclude that she is a widow. Her husband is living, but he never comes home until midnight.

TELEGRAPH MINING COMPANY!

ON THE COMSTOCK LODE.

Capital Stock, - - - - - - - - $6,000,000

Divided into Sixty Thousand Shares of One Hundred Dollars Each, Twenty-five Thousand Shares reserved for Working Capita

THE TELEGRAPH MINING COMPANY, INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE State of California, April 1st, 1876, has purchased 900 feet of rich gold and silver mining ground on the celebrated Comstock Lode, upon which are located the California, Consolidated Virginia, Ophir, and other well known profitable mines. The mine is situated between the Utah, Orleans and Ward mines, and the rock taken from it yields a high return of gold and silver. The Directors have reserved 25,000 Shares of the Capital Stock of the Company for working purposes, in order to avoid any danger of being compelled to assess the Stock. Ten Thousand Shares of this reserved Stock will be offered at once for subscription, at ONE DOLLAR per share. The other 15 000 shares will be disposed of from time to time through the Stock Boards, as occasion may require, and the Directors may think most profitable for the working of the mine. As soon as the Ten Thousand Shares now offered are taken the Stock will be placed upon the Boards of the respective Stock Exchanges, and will at once command a figure more than double the price now asked for the original subscriptions. It is confidently believed that this mine, by reason of its location on the Comstock Lode and its close proximity to the Utah will in a short time reach as high a value per share as the last named mine commands, which would be an increase of over twenty five hundred per cent on the price at which the stock is now offered to original subscribers.

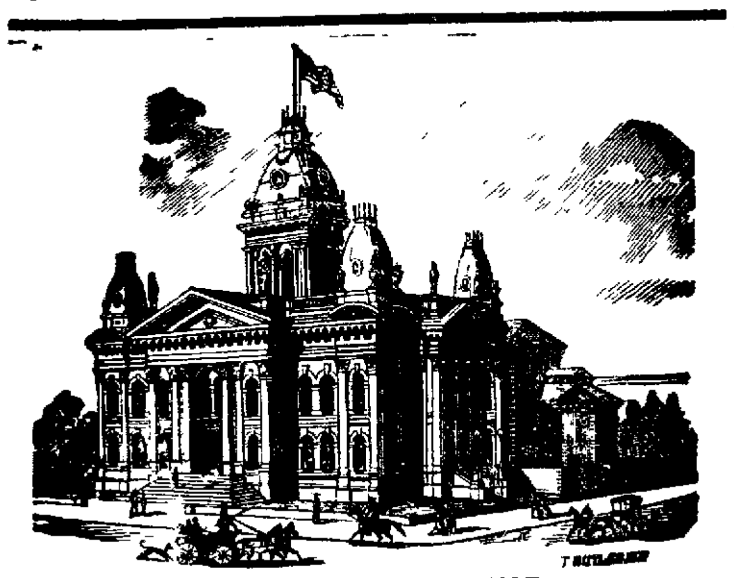

The books of the Company will be opened for subscription, April 19th, at the office of the Company, No. 224 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

Some Eccentricities of Courtship.

"Probably there is no instance in which any two lovers have made love exactly in the same way as any other two lovers, since the world began."—Sir Arthur Helps

Barkis insinuated

Vivien charmed Merlin

Alexander made a bonfire for Thais

Hildergarde took the bull by the horns

The Merchant of Venice soft-soldered Portia with a lead casket

The garrulous female in the Arabian Nights told her husband stories

Victoria sent for Prince Albert and told him she wanted him. She was victorious

In the Polynesian Islands they win their hearts by beating their heads with a shilelah

Harry the Eighth and Bluebeard were off with the head of the old love before they were on with the new

Dr Johnson poked the tobacco in his pipe down with his sweetheart's finger—a warm token of affection

Tristram did it mostly with a harp, and was also a good liar. His two Isoldes were too many for him

Bothwell was inclined to Marie, and locked her up in his castle. It worked as well as Peter's pumpkin shell

Dobbitt's wife caught him by the grace with which she used her wash tub. She never was known to use it after the wedding

Sam Romily, the famous lawyer, killed himself because his wife died, while a good many others kill themselves because they won't die

Nicholas of Russia wanted to pop at a dinner table, but didn't like to be caught at it, so he imbedded a ring in a lump of bread and handed it to her

Charlemagne's Secretary was caught by a snow storm sparking the Emperor's daughter at midnight, and she carried him home on her back, so that his footsteps shouldn't be seen. The Emperor heard of it, and saddled him onto her for the rest of her life

Interesting Spider Story.

Yesterday quite a crowd gathered on Gratman street near Mungry, at a carpenter shop there where a scene was transpiring, that filled the spectators with astonishment. Near a bench in the shop hung a mouse, medium sized, head downwards, and around its body was coiled a single thread of a spider's web, which reached to a corner of the bench above and had it fastening there. On the mouse's tail quietly sat the spider, which seemed to be manipulating the thread and working it as with a pulley. When caught the mouse was on the ground and after five or six hours work the spider managed to hoist her about an inch and there she hung. The statement concerning this singular circumstance is that the mouse was accustomed when on a predatory excursion to emerge from a hole under the bench and pass into an inner room. The spider laid a trap in her path, it is conjectured, and yesterday morning, as the mouse was making her daily rounds she was caught in the net set for her and securely held the spider taking up position on her tail. Though the mouse hung suspended a dead weight the thread did not give way, and there she hung, helpless between earth and heaven. At night the carpenter closed up his shop and dropped the curtain on the show, but the spider was still at work and had completed about an inch in the elevation.—New Orleans Picayune

—The foreign Exposition goods all arrive in beautiful order very carefully packed and marked. One case of French goods asked to be kept dry in German, French and English the English inscription being, "Please beware for it of the humidity."

—"Why did Pharaoh kill the boy babies of the Hebrews and not the girls?" asked a teacher of her class of girls the other day. "Because boys are so much worse than girls," was the prompt reply of a little maid.

The proprietors of the celebrated San Francisco Steam Pump received the GOLD MEDAL for the best steam Pumps on exhibition at the last Mechanics Fair in San Francisco. We have made a specialty of Tank Pumps and Boiler feeders and challenge comparison with anything in use for simplicity of construction durability and economy. Specimens of our work can be seen at the following places in Oakland:

J. M. WALKER, Twelfth street between Jackson and Oak
MRS BLAKE Washington street between Eleventh and Twelfth
G. W. HUME Contra Costa road
H. D. BACON, Oak street
FASSKING'S PARK, Alameda

We would also call attention to our newly invented direct acting Steam Pump for artesian or other deep wells, with which water can be raised from any required depth. [illegible] at the Palace Hotel where our pump in 100 feet down the well [illegible] is raising 100,000 gallons per day to the top of the hotel. Another of similar construction but much smaller may be seen at the Hammam Baths in San Francisco. All persons wanting pumps will find it to their advantage to call on us.

REDUCTION IN GAS.

Important to Landlords and Gas Consumers.

SAFETY AND ECONOMY.

OFFICE OAKLAND GASLIGHT CO.,
February 1 1876

IN PURSUANCE OF THE POLICY followed by this Company since their first organization to lower its rates as rapidly as warranted by the growth of the city, the price of gas will be reduced on the

1st Day of March Next

TO

$4 25 PER 1,000 CUBIC FEET

Considering the value of coal and labor the limited use of gas and the distance between the places of consumption

Oakland will be the most cheaply lighted city in the Union

This price will leave no satisfactory profit [illegible] use of any illuminant but [illegible] of the Company's mains a large part [illegible] which are now and have been since they were laid unproductive [illegible]

The advantages to be reaped by the public from Cheap Gas are

1st. A daily saving in the cost of one of the necessaries of life

2d. A decrease in the number of [illegible] fires caused by the use of the volatile [illegible] illuminants

3d.—A saving of human life by substituting stationary lights for brittle lamps

4th. The most convenient [illegible] brought within the means of the [illegible]

However small the loss, [illegible] be great. If insured the rate [illegible] be lessened; if not insured the risk [illegible] be decreased

This reduction can only be [illegible] by the Company by the accession of a sufficient number of new consumers [illegible] compensate for the lessening of its current receipts, and it will become the interest of all consumers of gas to induce their neighbors to adopt this light in order that further reductions may be made in the future

The attention of consumers is also directed to the use of gas for heating and cooking. In Europe and the Eastern cities it has become a [illegible] and its use is constantly extending

It is to be hoped that this movement will be accepted in the spirit which has inspired it, and which has always characterized the Company, viz

That the Interests of Consumers and the Company are Identical.

The Company are constantly [illegible] all changes in modes of manufacture and distribution and will at all times avail itself of any real improvement [illegible] to improve quality and [illegible]
